Project Manager (Talent Development)

Fee £200 a day for 40 days fixed term contract (freelance) - Home and Bristol based

Asian Arts Agency is seeking to appoint a dynamic Project Manager; this is an exciting opportunity for a skilled and motivated individual to help us deliver an innovative talent development project by a diverse and vibrant arts organisation based in Bristol. Working with major music industry partners and artists you will manage a pioneering programme of digital and live performances.

We are looking for an experienced music professional to work with the Director in delivering our artist development initiatives (new music commissions, training and development activity and our Breaking Barriers project). Breaking Barriers is a new project conceived and developed by Asian Arts Agency to create new opportunities for South Asian musicians. We are looking for someone with an excellent understanding of the music sector/industry and of barriers faced by South Asian musicians (including challenges faced by disabled musicians).

The successful candidate will have high level project management skills and the ability to deliver a project from inception to completion; excellent time-management skills; a keen attention to detail; a flair for communicating well, especially with artists/musicians and a range of project partners; sensitivity and tact; and a commitment to ensuring equality of access. He/she will be a self-starter with knowledge and understanding of digital music production and the recording industry.

Asian Arts Agency (www.asianartsagency.co.uk) is a dynamic arts development agency that develops, promotes and supports international, contemporary and traditional South Asian music and arts nationally and internationally. Our vision is to mainstream high quality South Asian arts and music. The Agency is an Arts Council England National Portfolio Organisation and key arts provider for Bristol City Council.

This will be an exciting opportunity for an individual with energy, drive and imagination and an opportunity to develop new skills and understanding by working closely with our Creative Director.

We expect you to hit the ground running!

Closing date: Monday 5th[rd] July 2021 at 9.30am
